Thanks for the wait, here's volume 7! It sure has been a while, hasn't it, what with the 1 year gap between the previous release and all. Previously, due to the involvement with the anime production process, things got really busy to the point where there were times when I was absolutely exhausted. But I'm all refreshed and feeling fine now!

Nevertheless, I certainly didn't expect the serialization to last this long. I wonder if it'll end up being one of the longest original works in (Dengeki) Maoh.

This time the story focused on Effi-san's village so there's plenty of boobs being shown. As an aside, I am personally an ass person. Anyway, I'll continue to do my best in drawing the lines for underarms, ribs and shoulder blades and make the forms look as alluring as I can. Drawing human bodies in an alluring manner requires an 'I am a massive pervert' attitude to it. I guess I just announced that I am a pervert. Ehe.
It is with that mindset that I ended up designing a new uniform where the armpits and back is in full view. The ladies (female fans) approve of the design too! Fufufu...

In the end all I did was talk about lewd things. Still, thanks for reading right to the end! See you in the next volume! ♪
